JACKSON ARRANGING ANOTHER FIGHT CARD

Public Will Have to Distribute It- Success of Last Venture Encourages Promoter to Try It Again Next Month.

Nigel Jackson is so pleased at the sporting public's appreciation of his efforts which resulted in three very interesting and instructive scraps at the Asahi Theater last Monday night that he is at it again working up a card. The Christmas bouts cost him $618 including all incidental expenses, and he took in enough to cover that and then some. Joe McGurn cleaned up $210, Jim Hoao got $146. Bauersocks and Fink drew down $60 between them and Surcone and Gans came in for $55. Everybody says it was the best fistic exhibition they have seen in Honolulu for one while, and the scrappers are all contract to convey the crowds who go satisfied with the way they were treated by the promoters.
